

CURRICULUM VITAE

Kristen Thompson, Ph.D.

PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT

Private Practice

9401 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 730
Beverly Hills, California 90212
(310) 285-6730

September 2001 to the Present

Evaluation of children, adolescents, and adults for concerns including learning disabilities, attentional problems, emotional and/or behavioral issues, head injuries, medical conditions, developmental disabilities, and other conditions that may affect cognitive, behavioral or emotional functioning, as well as to ascertain neurocognitive strengths and weaknesses for educational or treatment planning.

Board Member

Center for Neurocognitive Wellness
September 2007 to 2010

Not-for-profit organization aimed at developing computer-based interventions to be utilized by older adults to decrease the likelihood of developing significant age-related neurocognitive deficits.

Adjunct Professor

Fischler Graduate School of Education and Human Services,
Child Youth Studies and Human Services, Nova Southeastern University, North Miami Beach, FL
July 2005 to 2006

LICENSURE

September 7, 2001

California License Number: PSY 17666

HIGHER EDUCATION

Clinical Psychology
Internship

July 1, 1998-June 30, 1999

UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute and Hospital,
Los Angeles, California
APA Accredited Program
Specialization: Child Psychology

Doctorate of Philosophy
August 6, 1999

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI, Coral Gables, Florida
APA Accredited Program in Clinical Psychology
Specialization: Clinical Child and Family Psychology
Qualifying Exams passed July 1997
Major Advisor: Annette M. La Greca, Ph.D.

Master of Science
May 1997

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI, Coral Gables, Florida
Specialization: Clinical Child Psychology
Major Advisor: Annette M. La Greca, Ph.D.

Bachelor of Arts
May 16, 1993

DUKE UNIVERSITY, Durham, North Carolina
Summa Cum Laude and Graduation with Distinction
Major: Psychology
Certificate: Human Development
Major Advisor: John D. Coie, Ph.D.

HONORS

University of Miami, College of Arts and Sciences,
Outstanding Teaching Assistant from the Department of Psychology (1996-1997)
Letter of Commendation from Department of Psychology for Excellence in Clinical Work, Research, Teaching, and Academics (1997)
Academic Award of Merit, University of Miami (1997)
University of Miami Graduate School Scholarship and Teaching Assistantship (1994-1998)
Summa Cum Laude, Duke University (1993)
Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society Member, Duke University
Graduation with Distinction in Psychology, Duke University (1993)
Karl E. Zener Award for Outstanding Performance in Psychology, Duke University (1993)
Golden Key National Honor Society Member, Duke University
Dean's List with Distinction, Duke University

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American Psychological Association
International Neuropsychological Society

RELATED CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Appeared as clinical expert in neuropsychology on Emmy Award winning NBC television show
Starting Over (3 episodes in 2004-2005 Season)

POST-DOCTORAL CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Private Practice

Supervisor: Leah Ellenberg, Ph.D., ABPP in Clinical Neuropsychology
Beverly Hills, California
July 1999-August 2001

PRE-DOCTORAL INTERNSHIP CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Adolescent Psychiatry Inpatient Unit—UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute and Hospital
Supervisors: Rhonda Sena, Ph.D., Michael Strober, Ph.D., Mark De Antonio, M.D.
March 1999-June 1999

Child Psychiatry Inpatient Unit—UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute and Hospital
Supervisors: Mary O'Connor, Ph.D., Bhavik Shah, M.D.
November 1998-March 1999

Integrated Adult Assessment Service—UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute and Hospital
Supervisors: Lori Holt, Ph.D., Jeffrey Schaeffer, Ph.D., Michael Mekjian, Ph.D.
July 1998-June 1999

Outpatient Consultation-Liaison Service—UCLA Outpatient Service
Supervisors: Brenda Bursch, Ph.D., Margaret Stuber, M.D.
July 1998-June 1999

Outpatient Psychiatry/Psychology Service—UCLA Child Outpatient Clinic
Supervisors: Martha Jura, Ph.D., Irene Goldenberg, Ph.D.
July 1998-November 1998

Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry/Psychology Service—UCLA Medical Center
Supervisors: Brenda Bursch, Ph.D., Margaret Stuber, M.D.
July 1998-November 1998

Pediatric Pain Service—UCLA Outpatient Pediatric Clinic
Supervisor: Brenda Bursch, Ph.D.
July 1998-November 1998

GRADUATE CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Pediatric Psychology Service: Multivisceral/Liver Transplant Unit/ Pediatric Intensive Care Unit
—University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Development/Jackson Memorial Hospital
Supervisor: Deborah Thevenin, Ph.D.
May 1997-October 1997

Child, Adolescent, And Family Therapy Service
—University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Development
Supervisor: Deborah Thevenin, Ph.D.
May 1997-August 1997

Child, Adolescent, And Family Therapy Service—Family Therapy Reflecting Team
—University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Development
Supervisor: Deborah Thevenin, Ph.D.
May 1997-August 1997

Developmental Evaluation Program
—University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Development
Supervisor: Deborah Thevenin, Ph.D.
May 1997-August 1997

Pediatric Psychology Service: Gastrointestinal Clinic
—University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Development/Jackson Memorial Hospital
Supervisor: Deborah Thevenin, Ph.D.
July 1997

Comprehensive Evaluation Team—University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Development
Supervisor: Maria Fernandez, Ph.D.
January 1997-May 1997

Adolescent Health Psychology Service—University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Development
Supervisor: Kimberly H. Shaw, Ph.D.
September 1996-January 1997

Adolescent Health Psychology Service—Endocrinology/Diabetes
—University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Development/Jackson Memorial Hospital
Supervisor: Kimberly H. Shaw, Ph.D.
September 1996-January 1997

Outpatient Adult, Child, And Family Therapy—University of Miami Psychological Services Center
Supervisors: Donald Routh, Ph.D., Kristin Lindahl, Ph.D., Shelley Payne, Ph.D.
May 1995-August 1996

National Hockey League Concussion Project—University of Miami Department of Neurology
Supervisor: Bonnie Levin, Ph.D.
October 1997 to December 1997

Adolescent Medicine—University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Dev./Jackson Memorial Hospital
Supervisors: Kimberly H. Shaw, Ph.D., Onelia G. Lage, M.D.
April 1997-May 1998

Family Therapy—University of Miami, Study of Family Interactions and Treatment Outcomes
Supervisor: Kristin Lindahl, Ph.D.
January 1997-April 1997

Parent Training—University of Miami, Study of Family Interactions and Treatment Outcomes
Supervisor: Kristin Lindahl, Ph.D.
January 1996-April 1996

Kidney Transplant—University of Miami Professional Arts Building
Supervisors: Barbara Goldman, Ph.D., Andrew Brickman, Ph.D.
April 1995

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

FAST Track—Duke University, Department of Psychology
Supervisor: John D. Coie, Ph.D.
August 1993-June 1994
Academic Tutor

John Umstead State Mental Hospital, Butner, North Carolina 27509
Supervisor: Robert C. Carson, Ph.D.
September 1992-December 1992
Volunteer

George Watts Elementary School, Durham, North Carolina 27701
Supervisor: Duke University Volunteer Association
September 1991-December 1991
Volunteer Tutor

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

University of Miami Department of Neurology
Supervisor: Bonnie Levin, Ph.D.
October 1997-March 1999

Research Assistant Examining children with intractable epilepsy due to developmental lesions in order to better understand the relationship between early hemispheric damage and neuropsychological functioning.

University of Miami Department of Psychology

Chairperson: Annette M. La Greca, Ph.D.; Committee Members: Donald K. Routh, Ph.D.

Kimberly H. Shaw, Ph.D., Onelia G. Lage, M.D., Peggy O'Hara, Ph.D.

April 1997-May 1998

Dissertation Examined protective and risk factors for early sexual activity in ethnically diverse, lower income adolescents with chronic medical conditions for dissertation. Study was part of an intervention project funded by the March of Dimes for the prevention of birth defects, early unwanted pregnancy, and sexually transmitted diseases.

University of Miami Department of Psychology

Chairperson: Annette M. La Greca, Ph.D.; Committee Members: Donald K. Routh, Ph.D.

Kimberly H. Shaw, Ph.D.

May 1995-December 1996

Masters Investigated the influence of family and peer diabetes specific-social support on metabolic control and depression levels in ethnically diverse, lower income adolescents with insulin dependent diabetes mellitus for master's thesis.

University of Miami Department of Adolescent Medicine

Supervisors: Onelia G. Lage, M.D., Kimberly H. Shaw, Ph.D.

April 1997-May 1998

Research Assistant Assisted on a March of Dimes funded longitudinal intervention project for the prevention of birth defects, early unwanted pregnancy, and sexually transmitted diseases with ethnically diverse, lower income adolescents with chronic medical conditions. Additional goals involved educating adolescents and their parents on disease specific risks of sexual activity, pregnancy, and birth control.

University of Miami Department of Psychology

Supervisor: Annette M. La Greca, Ph.D.

August 1994-May 1994

Research Assistant Assisted on the PEERS project: an NIMH grant-funded longitudinal follow-up study investigating the effects of childhood peer relations and peer support as predictors of adolescent adjustment. Assessment of psychological adjustment included measuring risky behavior, peer group status, and social anxiety.

University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Development

Supervisor: Kimberly H. Shaw, Ph.D.

May 1994-July 1996

Research Assistant Examined adolescent health beliefs in a population of chronically medically ill, ethnically diverse, lower income patients to aid in better understanding the influence of one's medical and health beliefs on compliance.

University of Miami Mailman Center for Child Development

Supervisor: Annette M. La Greca, Ph.D.

May 1994-July 1996

Research Assistant Assessed the utility of using a generalized form of the Diabetes Social Support Inventory, the Chronic Disease Support Inventory, to assess family and peer support related to disease management.

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Department of Psychiatry

Supervisor: J. Kenneth Whitt, Ph.D.

June 1993-July 1994

Research Technician I Assisted on a developmental project examining children's conceptions of illness.

Duke University—FAST Track, Department of Psychology

Supervisor: John D. Coie, Ph.D.

May 1994-June 1994

Research Assistant Assisted with the Duke FAST (Families and Schools Together) Track program, an NIMH funded multisite, longitudinal intervention project that targeted children at-risk for social and academic failure.

Duke University, Department of Psychology

Supervisor: John D. Coie, Ph.D.

October 1993-June 1994

Research Assistant Assisted on a project study that investigated the effects of potentially stressful situations on aggressive rejected, nonaggressive rejected, and average children's emotions.

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Department of Psychiatry

Supervisor: Jean Hernandez, Ph.D.

August 1993

Research Assistant Assisted on a project investigating various aspects of a local prison population. The study examined the level of dissociation, childhood sexual abuse, and family drug and alcohol abuse in the young adult male prisoners.

Duke University, Department of Psychology

Supervisor: John D. Coie, Ph.D.

June 1993-July 1993

Research Assistant Assisted with a longitudinal follow-up study with peer rejected children.

Duke University, Department of Psychology

Supervisor: John D. Coie, Ph.D.

September 1992-April 1993

Undergraduate Honors Project Analyzed data from study of aggressive rejected, nonaggressive rejected, and average children's perceptions of self-directed and other-directed feedback in a laboratory setting. Conducted a literature review of studies relevant to this topic and defended an honors project of which portions were presented at the biennial meeting of Society for Research in Child Development, New Orleans, March 1993. Honors project was successfully defended on April 12, 1993 and was later awarded the Zener Award for Outstanding Performance in Psychology.

Duke University, Department of Psychology

Supervisor: John D. Coie, Ph.D.

June 1992-May 1993

Undergraduate Research Assistant Assisted on a project examining children's perceptions of interpersonal cues as they related to sociometric status.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Miami, Department of Psychology

Supervisors: Victoria Noriega, Ph.D., Lynn Durel, Ph.D.

August 1994-May 1998

Graduate Teaching Assistant Assisted in the Undergraduate Psychology Advising Office/Undergraduate Services Office. Provided academic advisement as well as graduate school and career counseling to undergraduate psychology majors and minors. Advised students on academic courses for both general and psychology requirements as well as for post-baccalaureate requirements and career options. Assisted in conducting group advising sessions regarding graduate school preparation in psychology. Assisted in planning and conducting orientation meetings for Peer Advisors, transfer psychology majors and freshman psychology majors. Attended University Advising meetings and had considerable interaction with the Dean's Office, other Departments and other Schools within the University. Supervised undergraduate Peer Advisors, first, second, and third year graduate students, and managed Peer Advisors' payroll. Provided guest lecture service to professors when needed regarding Advising services, graduate school, and the University structure and services. Offered psychoeducational programming to campus groups, such as Psi Chi, regarding graduate school and research in psychology.

Miami Dade Community College, Department of Psychology and Education—University of Miami

Supervisor: Victoria Noriega, Ph.D.,

August 1997-May 1998

Course Instructor Taught a newly developed course, Psychology of Career Adjustment, to 31 undergraduate students at a local college in tandem with a course at the University of Miami. Participated in curriculum development of the course. Goals of the course included providing students with an introduction to research and careers in psychology, preparing students to enter careers in scientific psychology, preparing students for graduate school in psychology, and preparing students for the P.R.I.M.E. (Psychology Research Initiative Mentorship Experience) summer grant program. The P.R.I.M.E. summer grant program was an internship program sponsored by the American Psychological Association and the National Institute of General Medical Sciences to promote the entrance of minority students into the field biomedical research. The program took place at five locations around the United States.

Responsibilities for the course involved lecture preparation and lecturing, designing and grading exams, developing paper topics and grading papers, assigning and grading homework in conjunction with Dr. Victoria Noriega, instructor for the joint course at the University of Miami. Objectives of the course also involved students attending a series of lectures in the field of biomedical research.

Further responsibilities, apart from instructing the course, included attending P.R.I.M.E. (APA/NIGMS) strategy/planning meetings for the southeastern region and speaking in front of a participating local university's Psi Chi chapter regarding graduate school and research in psychology.

University of Miami, Department of Psychology

Supervisor: Adele Hayes, Ph.D.

January 1996-May 1996

Course Instructor Abnormal Psychology (PSY 352)

University of Miami, Department of Psychology

Supervisors: Annette M. La Greca, Ph.D., Kimberly H. Shaw, Ph.D.

May 1996-August 1996; May 1997-June 1997; August 1997-May 1998

Course Instructor/Supervisor Supervised five undergraduate research assistants during three semesters on a variety of research projects, including a March of Dimes funded study.

University of Miami, Department of Psychology

Supervisor: Lynn A. Durel, Ph.D.

August 1994-December 1994

Graduate Teaching Assistant Assisted with the teaching of Honors Introductory Psychology I.

University of Miami, Department of Psychology

Supervisor: Lynn A. Durel, Ph.D.

January 1994-May 1994

Graduate Teaching Assistant Assisted with the teaching of Introductory Psychology II, which was taught at both the general and honors' levels.

University of Miami, Department of Psychology

Supervisor: Pamela Derorian, Ph.D.

January 1994-May 1994

Graduate Teaching Assistant Assisted with the teaching of Psychology of Women taught as a 100+ student lecture course.

University of Miami, Department of Psychology Research Participation Office

Supervisor: Chuck Carver, Ph.D.

August 1994-December 1994; August 1997-May 1998

Graduate Teaching Assistant Assisted in the Research Participation Office that serves the undergraduate population enrolled in Introductory Psychology at the University of Miami.

Duke School for Children

Supervisor: Musia Lakin, Ph.D.

January 1993-May 1993

Undergraduate Teaching Assistant Assisted in a preschool classroom of four and five year-olds at a private academy. Assisted with social skills training aimed at helping children to recognize affective cues in others and describe their own feelings. Coordinated social and academic interaction activities.

PUBLICATIONS

Lage, O. G., Shaw, K. H., & Thompson, K. M. (in press). Sexual behaviors and beliefs among chronically ill minority youth: Implications for health care delivery. Journal of Adolescent Health. (abstract)

La Greca, A. M. & Thompson, K. M. (1998). Family and friend support for adolescents with diabetes. Analise Psicologica, 1, 101-113. (Portuguese Journal)

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

Thompson, K. M., Klein, B. R., Duchowny, M., & Levin, B. (1999, February). The effect of early hemisphere lesions on cognitive outcome in children with epilepsy. Poster presented at the International Neuropsychological Society, Boston, Massachusetts.

Shaw, K. H., Lage, O. G., & Thompson, K. M. (1998, May). Risky sexual behaviors among low income youth with chronic illness: An attachment theory perspective. Poster presented at the Midwestern Psychological Association, Chicago, Illinois.

Lage, O. G., Shaw, K. H., & Thompson, K. M. (1998, March). Sexual behaviors and beliefs among chronically ill minority youth: Implications for health care delivery. Poster presented at the annual meeting of Society for Adolescent Medicine, Atlanta, Georgia.

Thompson, K. M., La Greca, A. M., & Shaw, K. H. (1997, April). Friend support for low-income adolescents with IDDM. Poster presented at the biennial meeting of Florida Conference on Child Health Psychology, Gainesville, Florida.

Shaw, K., Lage, O., Thompson, K., Friedman, L. F., & Broman, M. (1997, April). Enhancing adherence among multicultural adolescents: Patients' and practitioners' use of alternative health practices in Suzanne B. Johnson (Chair), Compliance, Adherence, and Self-Care. Symposium conducted at the biennial meeting of the Florida Conference on Child Health Psychology, Gainesville, Florida.

Thompson, K. M., La Greca, A. M., & Shaw, K. H. (1996, October). Family and friend support for lower-income adolescents with insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus. Poster presented at the biennial meeting of the Kansas Conference in Clinical Child Psychology, Lawrence, Kansas.

Friedman, L. F., Shaw, K., Lage, O., Broman, M., & Thompson, K. (1996). The use of alternative health practices among low SES minority adolescents with chronic illnesses. Poster presented at the First International Conference on Health and Culture in Adolescence, Jerusalem Israel.

Thompson, K. M., Shaw, K. H., Broman, M. E., Lage, O. G., & Friedman, L. B. (1995, March). Family and friend support for Adolescents with a Chronic Disease. Poster presented at the biennial meeting of the Society for Research on Adolescence, Boston, Massachusetts.

Zakriski, A. L. & Thompson, K. M. (1993, March). A Cross-Situational Analysis of the Difficulties Aggressive Rejected Children Have Reading the Cues of Social Rejection in Marion K. Underwood and Audrey L. Zakriski (Chairs), Affective Components of Social Competence: Children's Ability to Send and Receive Emotional Cues. Symposium conducted at the biennial meeting of the Society for Research in Child Development, New Orleans, Louisiana.

EDITORIAL EXPERIENCE

Ad hoc Reviewer, Journal of Abnormal Child Psychology

Ad hoc Reviewer, Diabetes Care

Ad hoc Reviewer, Health Psychology